

West Insisting United Germany Key to Peace

GENEVA (AP) — The West pressed a campaign today in the Big Four foreign ministers conference against the Soviet Union, insisting that peace treaties with East and West Germany "can be no pact without unification of Germany."

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko replied by insisting that peace treaties with East and West Germany "are urgently needed."

He again denounced the Western package, proposing linking a German settlement with European security and disarmament measures.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd declared that it was "useless and indeed unjust" for the Soviet Union to try to "impose" on Germany a treaty which, Lloyd said, would saddle the German people "with certain discriminatory servitudes."

He referred to provisions which would regulate political activity inside West Germany and force it to sever its links with the Western Allies.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
GENEVA (AP) — The Western foreign ministers mapped a counter-attack today against the Soviet drive to break up their master plan for a German peace settlement.

The Western ministers were reported dwelling to discuss with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko four proposals which he wants to pull out of the package and talk about as separate issues.

But they were determined to avoid the impression that they were scrapping the rest of the program, which Gromyko rejected in a strong speech to the Big Four Conference Monday.

Another danger facing the Western allies was the possibility that Gromyko could exploit the known differences in the Western camp by playing off one ally against another.

The Western ministers are united in support of the German package proposal. But France and West Germany favor a tough "all or nothing" line in dealing with the Soviets. The British feel that even though the Soviets never will accept the whole plan, they may come to an agreement on some parts of it. The U.S. stands somewhere between the two extremes.

In rejecting the package Gromyko said he was prepared to discuss its proposals for a start on disarmament, a non-aggression declaration by the power, creation of a mixed committee of East and West Germans to pull the two parts of Germany closer together, and establishment of an arms limitation zone in central Europe.

Secret Ballots by Councils Unlawful

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The attorney general's office yesterday ruled unlawful secret balloting by city councils in first class cities.

All meetings must be open to the public except when "privileged matters, communications and information concerning individual units" is discussed, the ruling said.

The opinion was requested by Alderman Dan Wolf of Hot Springs. Hot Springs councilmen have voted by secret ballot on matters in the past.

Missing Pair Sought in Rugged River

By ROBERT F. ALKIRE

MOAB, Utah (AP) — A couple plucked from a rugged river's bank wanted today for search efforts to disclose the fate of the man's mother and father. They last saw the elderly couple bobbing away through dangerous Colorado River rapids after their pleasure boat capsized.

Frank A. Rich, 65, and his wife, Ed, of Lakewood Village, Calif., are missing and presumably drowned.

Rescued from awesome catarnet canyon were Dr. Delbert F. Rich, 41, Cedar City, Utah, and his 35-year-old wife.

"I managed to get my wife to safety," said the younger Rich, who grabbed her hair and yanked her to shore. "My mother and father were swept down the rapids."

The Riches were in one of more than 400 boats which made an annual 200-mile pleasure cruise down the Green River and up the Colorado in lonely eastern Utah.

The boaters were warned before starting not to get too close to the catarnet, a raging funnel of water that hurtles through 40 miles of jagged Colorado River canyon. The near-vertical canyon walls rise 800 or 900 feet above the river.

The rapids are a few miles down the Colorado from the point at which the Riches joined by the Green River.

Dr. Rich said he and his family were riding near the riverbank when they saw the elderly couple in another boat which seemed to be in trouble.

"We stopped to give them assistance. While we were working we apparently lost our sense of direction and when we started out again, we went the wrong way."

"Before we realized it, the boat was in the rapids. It was swamped, overturned, capsized."

Both couples were life jackets Rich said they leaped to the gunwales when they realized the swirling rapids would capsize the boat. Then they were thrown out.

Jim Hurst, a private pilot from Green River, Utah, saw the young couple while making a routine flight to check for river run stragglers. They were on shore, signaling distress. Hurst dropped a note saying help was on the way.

A rescue boat picked the Riches up and brought them here for examination. They were in good condition.

Helicopters and other planes were ordered to fly up and down the catarnet this morning seeking a sign of the missing couple. What was believed to be their battered boat was spotted bobbing in a whirlpool in the canyon Monday.

Chancellor Rules NLR Act Void

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Pulaski Chancellor Murray O. Reed yesterday ruled void a 1959 act which extends for one year the term on six North Little Rock city officials.

Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennet had declared Act 178 invalid. It extends the term of the mayor city treasurer and four aldermen and cancels a municipal primary election originally scheduled for this summer to nominate new officials.

Reed ruled in a suit testing the law. Attorneys in the suit appeared anxious to appeal the case to the state Supreme Court, for a final ruling before the court's summer recess.

Flood Dumps 10 Feet Water on Missouri Town

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP) — A torrent of water up to 10 feet deep surged through St. Joseph's north side late Monday night after a cloudburst north on the city.

One man drowned. Despite the widespread damage, there were no reports of missing persons.

The body of William M. Thomas was found four blocks from where the water swept him from his car.

Property damage was tremendous, but no one would estimate the monetary loss immediately.

Marrell Chillico, managing editor of the St. Joseph News-Press, who made a tour of the area, said "It's terrific. It's unbelievable how so much damage could be inflicted in such a short time. It's a miracle no one else got it."

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP) — A torrent of water 8 to 10 feet deep gushed down the main street of St. Joseph's north side Monday night when a cloudburst caused a flash flood.

One body was found, but police said it would require hours of diligent investigation to determine if there were other casualties. The dead man was William M. Thomas. He was found four blocks from where he was swept out of his car.

Property damage was expected to be huge.

The downtown of the north slopes of St. Joseph, a city of 70,000 population in northwestern Missouri, was measured at four inches — in one hour.

It was one of a series of thunderstorms which produced at least two tornados across the Missouri River in northeastern Kansas. No one was injured.

The St. Joseph flood followed the Great Western Railroad tracks through an older section of the city. The area is a combination business and residential district.

Police estimated that floodwaters were two or three feet deep in some areas. The rain was a speculation that flooded sewers contributed to the flood. The water receded rapidly.

St. Joseph avenue, the main street in the district, roughly parallels the railroad.

Parked automobiles were tumbled along the avenue by the rushing water.

The flood smashed the windows of the big Green Hills supermarket just as eight clerks were closing the store. Trapped inside, they fled to the roof.

Mrs. Glenn Case, wife of one of the clerks, arrived in a car to pick up her husband just as the water hit. She and their three small children were trapped in the car.

Alfred Dougal, one of the clerks, reached the car and passed the woman and children up to the other men on the roof.

Firemen took the 12 persons off the supermarket with an extension ladder.

The flood poured over the railroad tracks and through a huge storm sewer into the Missouri River. High ground prevented it from reaching the main business district.

Will Hold Hearing on Freight Rates

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Commerce Commission will hold a hearing July 14 on a request by 15 railroads to raise intrastate freight rates.

The proposed hikes, ranging from one to 20 per cent, would affect most commodities. Railroads were granted a 12 per cent increase in intrastate rates last October.

Eddie and Elizabeth Run Out of Money

CANNES, France (AP) — Newly weds Elizabeth Taylor and Eddie Fisher ran out of money today. They left their honeymoon yacht this morning for a little shopping tour on the Riviera.

Eddie picked up two watches for $1,400. At a specialty shop Liz and Eddie picked up some odds-and-ends only to find they didn't have enough money.

Like many tourists, they hiked over to the American Express where Fisher has made arrangements to replenish his bankroll along the honeymoon route. Then they returned to the yacht Olimpia which sailed for the Italian Riviera.

Money doesn't mean success, but most women would marry a failure if he had a million dollars.

West Insisting

Among those issues, the proposal for an arms limitation zone holds the greatest risk of splitting Western Europe. This was closely tied in with progress on German reunification. As an end in itself, however, the United States, France and West Germany strongly oppose setting up a central European zone in which arms would be limited on grounds it would help perpetuate division of Germany and might result in a shift of military balance unfavorable to the West. The British in the past have advocated such a zone as a starter toward disarmament.

A U.S. spokesman told reporters Gromyko's speech was "disturbing and disquieting."

Although Gromyko said he found points in the Western plan he would negotiate on, U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter rejected the Soviet proposals entirely. These calls for conclusion of separate peace treaties with both West and East Germany, German reunification to be worked out by the two German regimes and withdrawal of Allied troops from West Berlin.

"Speaking for the West, Herter concentrated his main fire on the peace treaty proposal. He said it carried 'the seeds of future discord and conflict' by perpetuating the division of Germany."

He rejected the deal of separate peace treaties, on legal grounds, arguing that Germany was still an "international entity" despite its division by the postwar occupation. He said the United States had been at war with the government of "all Germany," not with the two present regimes, and therefore could conclude a peace treaty only with the government of a unified Germany.

April Showers Bring Much May Resentment

Dear Dorothy Dix: Two months ago I was very surprised to receive an invitation to a stock shower for a girl who is expecting her third child. There were about thirty-five guests present at the party and all brought nice gifts. Shortly afterward, I received another invitation from the same person to a shower for her other sister who is expecting her first child. The same guest list was used. There is much comment about this situation and I appreciate your views.—P. P.

Dear P. P.: Your party-happy friend is certainly abusing the good nature of her guests. Since she had two expectant sisters, she should have given a shower for the younger and let the older girl fall back on the stockpile of old shower gifts. She undoubtedly is a generous, energetic soul (since giving a party is not for the timid or lazy), but her good impulses were a bit misguided in this case. Of course, those who are invited always have the privilege of refusal or, if they attend, of bringing thoughtful but inexpensive gifts. There's no reason for anyone to go broke over a shower, which should be a simple affair. Unfortunately, the trend is for bigger and better parties, with gifts often ranging upward to the very elaborate. It's time we got back to the old standards, about which no one could complain. Perhaps you could help get your crowd down to fewer showers and less elaborate ones. Everyone would call didn't have a destination in mind.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I work with a young man who lives in the opposite direction from my home and quits work an hour before I do. Lately he's been appearing at the employee's entrance with his car, when I leave the store, to take me home. He hasn't asked me for a date and I sure wish he would. I like him very much. —Alice

Dear Alice: Why the rush? Do you expect the boy to wave a marriage license right away? This young man is proceeding cautiously. I'm sure he wouldn't be doing all this "driving" if he didn't have a destination in mind.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My mother thinks an unmarried woman of 35 who never had any experience with men is too old to accept dates. Do you think this is the right attitude? —Nellie

Dear Nellie: It isn't the age, it's the adaptability. Don't be swept off your feet by the first sweet talk that's handed to you. Dates can be accepted at any age, but don't let your inexperience show. Send your problem to DOROTHY DIX.

TRIV. DIX: No sign to enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper.

Only Braves Can Hold Lead in National Play

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

First place is a kiss of death in the National League, except for the Milwaukee Braves — the only club that hasn't found the lead a ticket to fourth place.

In the first week of play, San Francisco broke on top, then lost five of eight and skidded to fourth. Milwaukee was on top for the next two weeks, gave way momentarily as Los Angeles moved in, then returned while the Dodgers dropped four of five and slipped to fourth.

The Giants made a repeat trip to the top May 2 — then dipped to fourth again, losing three of four while the Braves returned to first.

Cincinnati was next — but lost four straight and fell to fourth. Then the Dodgers were back. They won four in a row and had a half-game edge on Milwaukee a week ago. But they haven't won one since, while the Braves have set up shop once again, winning eight of nine.

Milwaukee made it five straight with a 4-2 victory at San Fran-

Chicago Sox Fight Way to American Lead

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The red-hot Chicago White Sox finally lead the American League, but it took one whole of a parlay to get 'em there. All they needed was a 10-for-11 streak, plus the winningest pitcher in the majors, plus the first shutout of the season by Baltimore's staff.

It all happened Monday night. The White Sox collected a 9-2 victory at Washington, behind the five-hit pitching of Early Wynn, while Baltimore beat Cleveland 2-0 and skidded the Indians to second place on the combined six-hit work of Skinny Brown and Billy Loos.

The White Sox, who began their run for the top after slumping to fourth, 4½ games behind Cleveland 10 days ago, now have a half-game edge over the Indians, who have only a 4-5 record for the same span.

Last place Detroit walloped Boston 14-2 as right-hander Jim Bunning drove in five runs toward his fourth straight victory. Kansas City and New York were idle.

In the National League, first straight with a 4-2 victory at San Francisco. Cincinnati defeated Los Angeles 9-7 in the only other game scheduled.

The White Sox tear, which began after a string of five defeats, Wynn, the 39-year-old right-hander, has won three in a row during the spurt and became the first to win six this season in the AL while packing away his 25th.
